CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 18.-A most sensational ending to the attempt on the mines and works, enormous exports of life of President Diaz occurred yesterday morning when Anelfino Arroyo was lynched by a band of common people determined on revenge. ALL DAMAGING TO LUETGERT. The Prosecution Will Close Its Case With Some Strong Evidence.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Yesterday's trial of the Luetgert case was given up to technical evidence and there was little of interest in the trial for the outsider. The prosecution will close its case with some strong evidence tending to prove the motive for the alleged crime. The state will endeavor to show that infatuation for Mary Siemering, the servant girl in the Luetgert household, was the cause of the murder. It will be claimed that the big sausagemaker desired to make the girl his wife, and that he put Mrs. Luetgert out of the way in order to permit his marriage with the

To prove this theory Frank Bialk and Frank Odorofsky employes of Luetgert, who have already testified in the case, will be put upon the stand and will give evidence relating to the domestic affairs of Luetgert. They are expected to testify as to the fondness of Luetgert for Mary Siemering and the indignant opposition to the girl's presence in the house made by Mrs. Luetgert. The frequent visits of Mary Siemering to Luetgert in the sansage factory at unusual hours of the night will be detailed. Both men will tell of seeing Luetgert chase his wife upon one occasion with a revolver, and they will tell of threats which they heard him make. With this evidence in, the state will rest.

CONDITION OF BUSINESS.

R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Trade Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 .- R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade savs: The end of the bituminous coal strike and the return of many thousand men to work at advanced wages adds to the purchasing power of the people and the anthracite strike affects not a fifth as many workers. The starting of many wheat and corn, the favorable news as to those crops and cotton, the fall in sterling exchange and the report showing that gold imports began in August, exceeding exports by $2,390,587, while merchandise exports exceeded imports weeks ago, are now finding them so vast and rapid that they fear reaction. But consumers as well as dealers have also to supply themselves after years of The assitant chief of police, who was sleeping in an adjoining room, was awakened by the noise. The iron industry again shows increasing demand and an average of prices nearly 1 per cent higher, due to purchasing by consumers. FEVER IS INCREASING

Ravages of Yellow Jack Assuming a Serious Aspect.

NEW CASES AT SEVERAL PLACES.

One More Death Has Occurred in New Orleans-Eight New Cases in That City. Fifteen New Cases Reported at Edwards and Seven at Ocean Springs - Biloxi Makes an Appeal For Aid.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18 .- The fever situation in New Orleans has assumed a somewhat more serious aspect than at any time since Sunday, when six of the St. Claude cases were declared to be yellow fever. The board of health has officially announced the appearance of eight new cases and of these one death, that of Zena Brauner.

The cases are scattered all over town and the death was of a case which had not been decided yellow fever, and did not seem so until the last day.

The citizens are quietly organizing themselves into a force to assist in the work of thorough sanitation, appointing a volunteer foreman for each square to superintend street cleaning and the thorough disinfection of each house-

A heavy rainstorm yesterday afternoon, lasting for several hours, flooded the streets, thoroughly flushed the gutters and tempered the atmosphere, and while cooler weather is somewhat dangerous for the sick, it is a material aid in frustrating a spread of the disease.

The city is comparatively calm. People continue to leave in small parties, but there is nothing like the wild exodus that depopulated Mobile, Jackson and other cities.

The situation is somewhat quieter at Ocean Springs. Three new cases, however, are reported.

The report of the board of health at Biloxi says that there are 19 cases of actual yellow fever under treatment with diagnosis reserved as to 12 cases. There were seven new cases reported during the past 24 hours. The doctors at Biloxi are tempted now no longer to class cases as suspicious, but to come out boldly and say that they are yellow OCEAN SPRINGS, Miss., Sept. 18.—The Brantford, who was reported by Surgeon Murray Thursday, is in a very critical condition. Several of the dengue patients have taken a turn for the worse, although none of them are considered as critically ill.

At Augusta, Miss., Rev. T. S. Powell of Brandon died of yellow fever. No other cases of yellow fever reported from there.

INCREASING AT EDWARDS.

Fifteen New Cases Reported to the State Board of Health.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Sept. 18.—Dr. Purnell reports to state board of health 15 new cases of yellow fever, including one convalescent at Edwards, the worst report yet. Four trained nurses have been sent to Edwards by special train.

Dr. Purnell furnishes the names of 10 of the victims as follows: Miss Eve Waeblinger, Frank Rossman, Fred Waeblinger, Miss Blanch Harris, Percy Birdsong, Mrs. Earrett, Miss Petuline Lewis, John Chase, colored; and two members of the Gray family, residing three miles in the country. None of the cases are critical.

Biloxi Appeals For Aid.

BILOXI, Miss., Sept. 18.—The city council last night adopted resolutions calling on the public for aid, stating that all factories and other industries have closed down thus throwing all the laboring people out of employment, that nearly all the sick are of that class and unable to purchase medicines and other things necessary in such urgency.

One Death at Mobile.

COUNTERFEITER AND 'ANARCHIST. Sensational Capture by Secret Service Men in Indiana.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Sept. 18.-Major Carter of Indianapolis, Thomas B. Porter and A. L. Gallaher, prominent secret service men, assisted by Sheriff Green, made one of the most important captures of counterfeiters in years the arrest of Henry A. W. Brown, a photographer of this city, and Theodore Hansen, a farmer's boy. The entire outfit for making money, together with $1, $2 and $5 bills of their work, was captured. Brown is said to be an anarchist and was intimate with Neebe and Parsons at the time of the Haymarket riot.

THREATEN VENGEANCE. The Indiana Lynching May Lead to

Bloody Vendetta.

Oscood, Ind., Sept. 18.—There is still much excitement here over the lynching of the five men at Versailles Tuesday night. Late vesterday a report became current that Peter Hostetter, the man who "gave away" the men who were lynched, had reappeared upon the streets of Osgood. Soon it became apparent that he was being looked for, and the patroling of every street was begun by people that boded no good for the man whom the relatives of the lynched men declare they will hold personally re-sponsible for the death of their kin-

It is reported that since the return from the funerals of three of the victims that a number of their relatives met together for consultation regarding what course to pursue in the matter and the result of that conference is said to have given birth to a vendetta that is to be nurtured into bloody life. Ed Singer, the deputy sheriff who shot Clifford Gordon, persisted in pursuit of the wounded robber until he captured him at the residence of Will Jenkins. Mrs. Jenkins declared that the officer should not remove him from her house. Hot words ensued and a riotous time followed, but Singer could not be diverted from his intentions, and Gordon was placed upon a cot and taken to jail.

As they carried him from the room As they carried him from the room Mrs. Jenkins stepped up to Singer, and, confronting him with flashing eyes, said: "You can take him. but I swear that if anything happens to him I will kill you the first opportunity that presents."

The undaunted officer paid no heed to the fierce threat, but it is alleged that the bereaved woman who mourns a husband has reiterated her determination with a greater show of determina-tion to execute her desire for ven-geance. It is said that Deputy Sheriff Will Willis, who aided Singer in the pursuit and arrest of Gordon and Anpursuit and arrest of Gordon and Andrews, has been embraced with Hostetter in the trio of marked men who have been decreed to die as a sacrifice upon the altar of vengeance.

The alleged doomed men are not alarmed, as it is known that if they fall victims a fearful retribution will follow, for the organization of criticens that was Shrewdness and ability marked situation here is not encouraging. Mr. their government, and enabled them to defy the law and officers with impunity.

But a few months ago, when the fa-Seymour bloodhounds brought here to track criminals to their abodes, the animals were secretly poisoned, and one of them died. Every person owning a watch dog was almost certain to have the animal poisoned or shot. But a few nights ago Mr. Glasgow, one of the leading merchants of Osgood, had a very valuable watch dog poisoned at his store. When it was ascertained how the outlaw gang operated and flourished, the present vigilance committee was formed, based on an oath-bound organization, with intelligence and discipline governing their action. They have become too formidable for banded thieves to contend with, as it is definitely known now that it numbers over 400 members, and is still growing. Hence futile and suicidal becomes the attempt to get even, of the criminal element.

Excitement has broken forth afresh because of the precipitous flight of the two Drs. Joseph, father and son, who have left together, leaving no trace of their whereabouts. The vigilance committee had considered the cases of other alleged criminals and sent out warning notices, and consternation is spreading. Mrs. Joseph stated last night that her husband and son had left the country because they thought it unsafe to remain here. Several weeks since the two doctors were arrested on the charge of robbing the Kamman family, near Milan, but were acquitted at a preliminary trial. The elder doctor was pension examiner a few years ago.

Should such a war break out, said Mr. Harp, the Japanese could not hope to succeed against a great country like the United States, as the finances of the former would soon give out. The Japanese are brave and they have a good navy. At first they might win a few battles, but they would ere long have to yield before the prolonged struggle which the inexhaustible re-sources of the United States would enable the latter to maintain.

THAT BRIBERY CASE.

Sensational Testimony by Franks and Wilson, Two of the Defendants. After Mr. Gaines.

The trial of Dr. Hunter, ex-Congressman John Henry Wilson and E. T. Franks, three Republican politicians, for attempting to bribe members of the Legislature to vote for the first named has brought out some sensational evidence, which shows very clearly that there was a dicker of some sort in progress, but it was not completed.

Franks and Wilson testified Friday. They try to shift the whole thing onto Gaines, (who was jointly indicted with them), and make it appear as though they were on to his scheme, and had no wrong intentions in what they did. Franks testified he was called to Gaines' coal office one day. Gaines and Tanner were there. Tanner retired and Franks held a conference with Gaines. Gaines said he had some parties that he could get to vote for Hunter. They then wanted $8,000 each. Franks said he would report the matter to Dr. Hunter, and did so. Dr. Hunter advised him to let the matter alone, saying, 'It is a trap.' At another conference Gaines said he could get the parties for $15,000, or $5,000 each. The matter went on until a few days before April 10th, when Gaines came to room 9 at the Capital Hotel. He wanted $16,-000. He said he had performed his part of the contract. Franks told him he had no money. He said he knew that, but that Hunter and Wilson did have it. Wilson held a conference with Gaines, and it was offered to put the money in the safe of M. P. Gray, but they refused to give Gaines anything. Gaines demanded $1,000 for his services.

Gaines had called him to a coal office privileges. near the penitentiary, and told him unless he was given $1,000 he would put Wilson in stripes and "Wilson could practice law from the Kentucky penitentiary as Charlie Moore had run his Lexington paper from jail." He refused to give up the money and warned Gaines, who said there was a man who would

SPRINGDALE.

A meeting is in progress at Bethany. R. B Neal, of Grayson, Ky., is doing the preaching. Large audiences are greeting him.

There has been a change "of night operators" at Springdale depot. This may wound the hearts of some of our fair maidens, but "similion similibus curantur," or words to that effect.

Elder Tom Degman delivers an address next Sunday in a county basket meeting of the Dis ciples of Christ at Oakland Park, Grayson, Carter County. The Monday following he will be at Willard, same county.

A large part of the denizens of Springdale moved away from the burg first of the week. Elder Tom Degman sent a drove of his hogs out to pasture. The remaining citizens will return him a vote of thanks for the exodus.

Cattle buyers are in the saddle and prices are ranging higher, even calves command such a pile of the d. d.'s (dollar of the daddies) that ye average father would not kill one for a returning prodigal, no matter how far he had wandered, or how long he had been from home.

The Grandeur and Sublimity of One of the Greatest Works of Nature.

Graphic Description of Scenes in Canada and On the St. Lawrence-In the White Mountains-On the Hudson.

[Correspondence of BULLETIN.]

Life to many is monotonous. It is a daily round of routine duty unenlivened by much that can develop the largest possibilities of mind or heart. The continual grind of the wheels wears heavily on the spirit and too many overborne by the disappointments and drudgery of existence throw up their hands and sink into apathy and despair. From paved streets, electric cars and the every-day bustle of the city, to the silence unbroken save by song of bird or tinkling bell of the everlasting mountains, is but a matter of a few hours flight, and we are in the carpeted aisles of the forest, in the wood from which the eternal shadow is never lifted. on the shore of the sea over whose iron coast tosses the tangled foam, sprinkling the cracked cliffs with a baptism of whirlwind and tempest.

Such were my reflections after nearly two years of incessant toil and application in the counting room, and it was with more than pleasant anticipations that I looked forward to the 12th day of July when I would go away for a month's recreation and pleasure. Boarding a Queen and Crescent train and connecting with the Big Four at Cincinnati, the trip through Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York was without incident, at the end of which was commenced the journey from Niagara to the sea.

We stop here and if possible, at least, make an effort to realize something of the grandeur and sublimity of the greatest work of creation. Before this foaming, roaring, thundering cataract one stands in awe and dread and admiration and feels as never before his own littleness and the infinite limitlessness of the eternal. Standing on the American shore one may see within fifteen steps as beautiful and as perfect a rainbow as is ever seen in the natural sky, and going over to the Canada side and descending in an elevator and climbing over some slippery rocks may go as near as he dare to the base of the falls, for fear of suffocation from the spray and mist, and returning enter a tunnel some twenty-five yards and go under or behind the falls.

But it is the trip on board the staunch little steamer "Maid of the Mist" in the chasm of Niagara river below the great cataract which affords during the summer season one of the most distinct "thrills" in all the world of travel. The vast gulf is full of sound and fury, of rainbows and pearly mist, while the deep green river rushes in mad currents below. The steamer takes on her rubber-clad passengers from a little its apples-the Pomme Grisse, (queen of russets), dock at the foot of the inclined railway in Prospect Park on the State reservation. First the "Rock of Ages" and the American Falls are passed, perilously near as it seems. Then, rounding the point of Goat Island, the tiny craft seems to rush into the very jaws of destruction as she penetrates the seething amphitheatre of the mighty a magnificent panorama is outspread. Chief Horseshoe. Nearer and nearer, until she seem like a bird held trembling by the awful fascination of the waters. Then the engines are stopped Mars. The Place d'Armes is framed in as it were and the boat drifts backward out of the vortex, her passengers awed and silent from their close interview with nature in her sublimest mood.

Before civilization had changed the aspect of North America the grandeur of Niagaia was ber of public institutions. Chief among these is known to the inhabitants of the old world. The the church of Notre Dame, the largest edifice of scene is much changed since the day when it was the kind in America except the Cathedral of regarded as an object of superstitious fear by the Mexico, the foundations of which were laid in Indians. Then perhaps its environment was more harmonious. Hemmed in by a dense for. in 1678. In 1823 when the present temple was deest the approach to the falls in those early days vised, which, on the 15th of June, 1829, was must have inspired a feeling of reverence and opened for public worship under the auspices of awe. Time also has left its impress on this inexplicable wonder. Slowly but surely the massive granite is being worn away by the unceasing turmoil of the waters, and in 1850 a large portion of Table Rock was precipitated into the gulf with a bells, unrivalled on this continent. The "Gros crash that was heard miles from the scene. In Bourdon" of the western tower is numbered perhaps the best description that has ever been among the five heaviest bells in the world. It written Charles Dickens says: "And then for the first time I heard the mighty rush of water and mouth measure eight feet seven inches in diamefelt the ground tremble underneath my feet. It was not until I came on Table Rock and lookedgreat Heaven-on what a fall of bright green water! that it came upon me in its full might which measures 251/2 feet each, and the walls are and majesty. Then, when I felt how near to my Creator I was standing, the first effect and the enduring one, instant and lasting of the tremendous spectacle was peace,-peace of mind, tranquility, calm recollections of the dead, great thoughts of eternal rest and happiness, nothinging of gloom or terror. Niagara was at once stamped upon my heart, an image of beauty; to remain there changeless and indelible until its pulses cease to beat forever."

Leaving the Falls, a two hour's ride through its splendid orchards, gardens, vineyards, meadmost important cities of the Dominion of Canada. doubled its population in less than fifteen years, and has to-day in round numbers a population of 200,000 souls. It is the seat of learning, of justice and Parliament for the Province. It is erin Terrace and Chateau Frontenac, Wolf and also the center of commerce and manufactures, Montcalm monument, house where Montgomery a city of homes and churches and of that hospitality which welcomes the stranger within its gates and gives him an agreeable recollection of his visit.

Having viewed Toronto, we arrange for the continuation of our trip eestward by taking the fortress of unrivalled strength and of magnifisteamer Corsican for a sail through Lake Ontario and down the St. Lawrence river, passing Darlington, Port Hope and Cobourg, places of more or less importance on account of their splendid unsurpassed in the world. In passing through harbors and being situated in the midst of an the quaint and narrow streets one feels that he exceedingly fertile country. Kingston is next is treading on a strange and wearied world, reached which, after Quebec and Halifax, has wholly at variance with the rest of our contithe strongest fort in the Dominion. A large trade is done here in transhipment of grain from with history, and the age of chivalry will draw lake vessels into barges. Among other public buildings are the Provincial penitentiary, the that is bewildering and fascinating. Everymilitary school, &c.

On leaving Kingston (5 a. m.) the steamer soon enters the wonderful and beautiful collection of isles known as The Thousand Islands.

These islands commence near Kingston, and extend downward to Brockville, a distance of over fifty miles. They form the most numerous some being mere dots of rocks a few yards in ex-passes so close to these islands that a pebble might be cast on their shore; while looking ahead it appears as though further progress was effectually barred, when rounding the points amid widening passages and bays the way is gradually opened before us. Again the river About two-thirds of the way up the tree line is proaching the threatening shores, a channel suddenly appears and you are whirled into a magnificent amphitheater of lake that is, to all appearance, bounded by an immense green bank. At your approach the mass is moved as if by magic, and 100 little isles appear in its place. Such is the charming scenery presented on this beautiful route. Alexandria Bay-This town is built upon a massive pile of rocks, its situation is romantic and highly picturesque,

"Like an isle under lonian skies" "Fair is a wreck of paradise."

It is a place of resort for sportsmen, and is celebrated for its shooting and fishing. The beauty of the islands in this viciuity for several miles up and down the river can hardly be imagined without a personal visit. Passing Brockville and Prescott we come to Galop Rapid. It is not so citing, but itprepares the traveler, from its less for steamers was on the south side; the channel pression that "All great things make men silent." on the north side was formerly considered unsafe and dangerous, but examinations have been made, and it is now decended with safety. The view. Here the majesty of the mountains is consteamer, after fully entering this rapid, rushes along at the rate of something like twenty miles forest and musical stream conveying the impres an hour; the steam is shut off, and she is carried surging waters present all the appearance of the ocean in a storm, but, unlike the ordinary pitching and tossing at sea, this going down hill by water produces a highly novel sensation.

The next town is Cornwall, pleasantly situated at the foot of the Long Sault on the Canada side. The boundary between the United States and Canada passes near this village, and the course of the St. Lawrence is hereafter within her Majesty's dominion. Lake St. Francis is an expansion of the St. Lawrence, which begins near Cornwall and extends to Coteau du Lac, a distance of forty miles. Passing Coteau, Cedar, Split Rock and Cascade rapids, Lachine is reached, the last and most important rapid. The steamer after emerging from its first pitch rises firmly on the surging billows, flanked by rocks on each side, steers straight in the swift current guided by the steady eye and sure piloting of the man at the helm. Conversation is almost impossible; the grandeur and magnitude of the scenes around on all sides impires silence, and no wonder that tourists annually make the "running of the rapids" a worthy link in the chain of their traveling tour through the Dominion. The steamer now comes in full view of one of the greatest wonders of the present age-the Victoria Bridge, spanning the noble St. Lawrence, two miles long, the longest, the largest and most costly bridge in the world. The scene whilst passing under, looking up from the deck of the steamer, is magnificent. After passing this beautiful work of engineering skill, the tourist has the splendid panorama of the fine city of Montreal right before him.

The island of Montreal is the most fertile area in the province of Quebec, and is renowned for and the incomparable Fameuse. It is thickly settled and has thriving villages and rich farms. Montreal has a Mountain Park and an Island Park. The drive round the former is a favorite afternoon recreation for citizens and visitors. It ascends by curves to the highest altitude, whence among the public squares and gardens of Montreal in size and historic interest, is the Champ de by the Corinthian portico of the Montreal bank, the Ionic colonnade of the Canadian Pacific rail. way offices and the towers of Notre Dame. There is no city in America which has a greater num-1672, and a church on the present site completed Mgr. Lartigne, first R. C. Bishop, of Montreal. The pile was intended to be representative of its name-sake, Notre Dame of Paris. Its towers are 227 feet in hight and contain a peal of eleven weighs 25,670 pounds, is six feet high, and its

The church will hold 12,000, and on extra ordinary occasions when chairs are used 15,000 persons. The twin towers of Notre Dame stand out to every traveler as the most notable landmark of Montreal.

The river St. Lawrence is 1,500 miles long, and drains an area of 330,000 square miles. From Montreal to Quebec a distance of 160 miles, its width varies from one to two miles. From a short distance below Quebec to the Gulf of St. Lawrence it varies from ten to thirty-five miles Ontario's magnificent agricultural region with in width. Half-way between Montreal and Quebec it widens out into Lake St. Peter, which is ows and wheat fields brings us to one of the twenty miles long and nine miles wide. At Quebec the tide rises fourteen feet, but it ceases It is the good city of Toronto which Canadians to be observed at the lower end of Lake St. Peter, are proud to call the Queen City of the West. It The depth of the river is so great that Quebec is is yet scarcely one hundred years old, has one of the few ports in America which the Great Eastern was able to visit.

After a night's trip by the steamer Montreal the old world city of Quebec is reached. Duffwas laid out, Esplanade Citadel, Parliament buildings and numerous other places were visited. There is not on this continent a city whose natural beauties and historical reminiscences are so great. The city is unique, a walled cent situation. From the height of Cape Diamond, the view of the St. Lawrence is a superb panorama, a view of mountain, river and valley nent. It is a city in which romance mingles its memories to the times we live in with a charm where there are battlements, fortresses, castles, convents, monasteries and towering walls, and the imagination rushes from the enchantment of practical existence to revel in the shrouded

Returning in the afternoon the trip through the White Mountain Notch was made under most favorable cfrcumstances; of all the countless thousands of days that have come and gone seemingly there was none so perfect as this. You are so encompassed with hills that you feel as though you could touch them on every hand. You are in a narrow gorge where nature, in some harsh mood, has torn the hills apart, and then, repentantly, as if to compensate for her harshness, has clothed them in loveliest verdure. Cliff after cliff rises before you in imposing grandeur, while at your feet the greenest mosses and the tenderest ferns grow. Here and there in the blue ether above, a floating cloud passes on its way, or is caught on the summit of a granite crag, where it is held a willing and beautiful extensive as the succeeding rapids or half so ex- prisoner. > From now on our journey is hurried as our time is limited and we have promised to stop a few days in Kentucky-the finest country under the sun and where may be found the best people in the world. After a splendid night's rest we are steaming through the quiet waters of Portland harbor and out into the great ocean beyond. Coming down to Boston we are hurried across the city to the N. Y., N. H. and C. R. R. station where we board a train for Fall River. The balance of the trip to New York is made aboard the palatial steamer Priscilla of this line. Having breakfasted and landed we rush over to the foot of Debrosse street and secure passage for the day light trip on the Hudson river. The first object to most interest us is the Grant monument waich stands prominent among the great mausolea of the world in which list are the Taj Mahal of Agra and the last testing-place of Napoleon Bonaparte in the Hotel des Invalides in Paris. It is in Riv erside Park at Riverside Drive and One Hundred and Twenty-third street. No more fitting site for this shriue of hero-worship could have been found than the one chosen on the heights of Claremont, overlooking the lordly Hudson, and yet almost within the heart of the greatest metropolis of the Western Hemisphere, now the second largest city in the world. Passing Washington Heights, the Stewart Castle, Irvington, the Palisades and the Highlands a scene of beauty and attractiveness is opened up surpassing the dreams of the most visionary. Words are inadequate, and the speech of man expressionless when he attempts to portray the glories of this enchanted region. Bayard Taylor after having traveled over and viewed everything that was beautiful and grand among the rivers and mountains of the earth said: "The glorious riverstill, to my eyes, after seeing the Danube, the Rhine, the Rhone, the Nile and the Ganges, the most beautiful river in the world." At another time he says: "But there is one river which from its source to the ocean unrolls a long chain of landscapes wherein there is no tame feature, but of beauty and majesty which other rivers may surpass in sections, but none rival as a whole, and its name is "The Hudson." Chattanooga, Tenn. A man may dress as well as his own good judgment and the assistance of an artistic tailor may elect. He may take his "tubs" but if his digestive organs are out of order, he will have an unwholesome appearance. His complexion and the white of his eyes will have a yellowish cast. His tongue will be coated, appetite poor, his teeth rusty, his breath abominable. He is one big, unmistakable sign of constipation. The quickest, surest, easiest way to cure this trouble is to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. Nothing in the least harmful enters into their composition. They hunt down all impurities, and "make them move on." They are the product of many years' study and practice. Dr. Pierce cannot afford to put forth a worthless
